30 As regards the environment to the Comptr in which it is Noted that the four appointments should be treated as Supernumeraries I feel some doubt.
There are a no of permanent Vacancies and why the four officers can be not Confirmed against them is not clear to me. A Supernumerary arrangement is necessary only when an officer has to be Confirmed but there is no permanent Vacancy in which he can be Confirmed.
The treatment of these officers as Supernumeraries results in exceeding the Scale and increasing the Cost. When there seems to be no need for either. For instance Mr Subbarayappa is holding a Charge and if he is treated as a Supernumerary it means that officer.

According to the cadre there are 5 sanctioned charges in the Accounts Deptt to be filled by Civil Service Asst/Jonnrs. 3 of these charges have been held by such officers.
